West Valley City Mayor to Host Summit of Educators

WHAT: West Valley City Summit of Educators

WHEN: Wednesday, August 18, 8:00 – 11:30 a.m.

WHERE: Utah Cultural Celebration Center, 1355 West 3100 South

WHO: All education leaders representing populations in West Valley City.

WHY: In his first ever State of the City address, West Valley City Mayor Mike Winder announced his intentions to host three meetings annually, bringing religious, educational, and cultural leaders together to discuss issues throughout the City. The third of this series of events will be the Summit of Educators, and will focus on education in West Valley City. Presenters will include Mayor Mike Winder, Utah Commissioner of Higher Education, Dr. William A. Sederburg, charter school representative, and Granite School District representatives*.

"I hope that by bringing this group of leaders together, we will be able to discuss what the City can do to further the efforts of these groups individually and collectively," said Mayor Mike Winder. "This summit will benefit all involved by ensuring that we're all on the same page when it comes to providing the educational opportunities that our residents deserve."

Leaders from all education groups with ties to West Valley City are invited. While some groups may not be located within the City, many people utilizing their services may live in the City and will benefit from the information presented and shared.

To RSVP for the Summit of Educators, please email info@wvc-ut.gov or call Angel at (801) 963-3220.
